Mission Statement

The AAPAC exists to support academic outcomes, to ensure a positive district and parental partnership for improving and developing parent and community engagement resulting in academic, social and emotional well-being for African American Students Pre-K to 12.

Core Values

- Equity
- Cultural Relevance
- Empathy

Goals

- Empower parents to advocate for the needs of their children by advocating for improvement and expansion of opportunities and quality programs.
- Encourage and reinforce equitable practices at the site, district, and community level, through collaborative, shared decision-making process with school, district and community stakeholders.

Priorities

- Develop school and district parent advisory groups and collaborative councils for parents and caregivers of African American students. To create parent liaisons through the advisory council.
- Provide ongoing cultural response and culture sensitivity training for all classified, certificated, and administrative staff.
- Reach out to parents/caregivers of African American students through Parent Engagement Leadership Initiative (PELI) programs.
